

Oh My Darling, Clementine

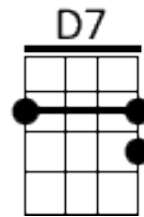

G / / / / / / / / D7 / / / C / / / G / / / D7 / / / G / / /

G
In a CAVern, in a CANyon,
D7
ExcaVATing for a MINe,
C G
Dwelt a MINer, forty-MINer,
D7 G
And his DAUghter ClemenTINE.

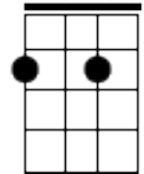

Refrain:

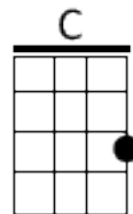

G
Oh my darling, oh my darling,
D7
Oh my darling Clementine
C G
You are lost and gone forever,
D7 G
Dreadful sorry, Clementine.

D7cheat

G
Light she was as any fairy,
D7
And her shoes were number nine,
C G
Herring boxes without topses,
D7 G
Sandals were for Clementine.

Ref.

G
Drove she ducklings to the water
D7
One fine morning just at nine,
C G
Got her foot caught in her eyebrow,
D7 G
Dreadful sorry, Clementine

We often refer to the easier (two-fingered) version of D7 as the 'Hawaiian D7'. Sounds so much better than 'D7 cheat'!
