

Yonder Comes A Sucker, by Jim Reeves

Chorus

D A7
Railroad steamboat river and canal
D
Yonder comes a sucker and he's got my gal
A7 D
And she's gone gone gone and she's gone gone gone
A7 D
And I'll bid her my last farewell

I fell in love with a pretty little thing
A7 D
I thought that wedding bells would ring

She was as sweet as she could be
A7 D
Till I found out what she did to me

Chorus

I asked her mother to let her go
A7 D
She whispered mother please tell him no
A7 D
Though he may think that I am true
A7 D
There are plenty more who'll think so too

Chorus

Now I won't cry my life away
A7 D
Some other sucker will have to pay

And when he finds that she is gone
A7 D
I guess I'll hear him sing this song
