

English Country Garden

Chords and Music by Robert M. Jordan

D G A D
How many gentle flowers grow
 D7 Em7 A D
in an English country garden?
 G A D
I'll tell you now of some that I know
 D7 Em7 A D
And those I miss you'll surely pardon
D A
daffodils, heart's ease and flox
D A
meadowsweet and lady smocks
D E7 A A7
gentian, lupin and tall hollihocks
 D G A D
roses, foxgloves, snowdrops, forget-me-nots
 D7 Em7 A D
in an English country garden.

D G A D
How many insects come and go
 D7 Em7 A D
in an English country garden?
 G A D
I'll tell you now of some that I know
 D7 Em7 A D
those I miss you'll surely pardon
D A
Dragonflies, moths, gnats and bees
D A
spiders falling from the trees
D E7 A A7
butterflies sway in the mild gentle breeze
 D G
there are hedgehogs that roam
 A D and little gnomes
 D7 Em7 A D
in an English country garden.

D G A D
 How many songbirds make their nests
 D7 Em7 A D
 in an English country garden?
 G A D
 I'll tell you now of some that I know
 D7 Em7 A D
 And those I miss you'll surely pardon
 D A bobolink, cuckoo and quail
 D A tanager and cardinal
 D E7 A A7
 bluebird, lark, thrush and nightingale
 D G
 there is joy in the spring
 A D
 when the birds begin to sing
 D7 Em7 A D
 in an English country garden.
