Chorus

(D) All a(A)round my (D)hat, I will wear the green (A)willow,
And (D) all a(A)round my (D)hat,
 for a twelve-month (E)and a (A)day.
And if (A) anyone should (D) ask me
The (G)reason why I'm (Bm) wearin' it,
It's (D) all (A)for my (D>true love who's (A)far, far, a(D)way

1

(D)Fare thee (A)well cold (D)winter, and fare thee well cold (A)frost.
Oh (D) nothing (A)I have (D)gained,
 but my own true (E)love have (A)lost.
So I'll (A) sing and I'll be (D) merry,
(G) when occasion (Bm) I do see-
He's a (D) false del(A)uded (D)young man, let him (A)go, fare well (D)he.

[Chorus]

2

Now (D) the other (A)day he (D)brought me a fine diamond (A)ring:
But he (D) thought (A) to de(D)prive me
 of a far (E)finer (A)thing.
But (A)I being (D)careful,
(G) as true lovers (Bm) ought to be,
He's a (D) false del(A)uded (D)young man, let him go, (A)fare well (D)he.

[Chorus]

3

Take a (D) quarter (A)pound of (D)reason, and a half pound of (A)sense,
A (D) small (A)sprig of (D)time,
 and a pinch of (E) pru(A)dence,
Now (A) mix them all to(D)gether
(G)And you will (Bm) plainly see:
He's a (D) false del(A)uded (D)young man, let him go, (A)fare well (D)he.
