Well Jimmy played harmonica in the pub where I was born
D G A
He played it from the night-time to the peaceful early morn
G D A
He soothed souls of psychos and the men who had the horn
D G A D
And they all looked very happy in the morning.

D G D A
Now Jimmy didn't like his place in this world of ours
D G A D G A
Where the elephant man broke strong men's necks when he'd had too many powers
G D A
So sad to see the grieving of the people that I'm leaving
D G A D
And he took the road from nowhere in the morning

CHORUS

D G D G A
We walked him to the station in the rain, We kissed him as we put him on the train.
G D G D A D A
And we sang him a song of times long gone, Though we knew that we'd be seeing him again
D G D A
Sad to say I must be on my way, so buy me beer and whiskey 'cause I'm going far away
D G D A D
I'd like to think I'll be returning when I can to the greatest little boozier and to Sally McLennane

D G D
The years went by the times had changed I grew to be a man
D G A
I learned to love the virtues of sweet Sally McLennane
G D A
I took the jeers and drank the beers and I crawled back home at dawn
D G A D
And ended up a barman in the morning
D G D
I played the pump and took the hump and watered whiskey down
D G A
I talked of whores and horses to the men who drank the brown
G D A
I heard them say that Jimmy's making money far away
D G A D
Some people left for heaven without warning
repeat CHORUS then G D A D
D G D
When Jimmy came back home he was surprised that they were gone
D G A
He asked me all the details of the train that they went on
G D A
Some people they are scared to croak but Jimmy drank until he choked

And took the road for heaven in the morning.
