

He Was Really Saying Something

(by The Velvelettes) { 1964 } written by Norman Whitfield, William "Mickey" Stevenson, Edward Holland, Jr.

Intro : [C] / [F] / | [C] / / / | [C] / [F] / | [C] / / / |
 [C] / [F] / | [C] / [F] / | [C] / [F] / | [C] [G] / / |

I was [C] walking [F] down the [C] street (doo [F] waddy wah)
 When this [C] boy started [F] following [C] me (oh [F] yeah)
 Now I ig-[C]-nored all the [F] things he [C] said (doo [F] waddy wah)
 He [C] moved me in [F] ev-e-ry [C] way [F]

With his [Eb] collar unbuttoned, on my [Db] side he was strut'n' [Db] / / /

He was [C] really [F] saying [C] something [F]
 [C] Really [F] saying [C] something [F]
 [C] Bop bop, [F] shoo be doo [C] wah / / /
 [C] Bop bop, [F] shoo be doo [C] wah [G] / /

He [C] flirted ev'ry [F] step of the [C] way (doo [F] waddy wah)
 I could [C] hear ev'ry [F] word he'd [C] say (oh [F] yeah)
 My re-[C]-sistance was [F] getting [C] low (doo [F] waddy wah)
 And my [C] feelings [F] started to [C] show [F]

My [Eb] heart started thumping, [Db] blood pressure jumping [Db] / / /

He was [C] really [F] saying [C] something [F]
 [C] Really [F] saying [C] something [F]
 [C] Bop bop, [F] shoo be doo [C] wah / / /
 [C] Bop bop, [F] shoo be doo [C] wah [G] / /

[C] / [F] / | [C] / [Eb] / | [C] / [F] / | [C] / [Eb] / |
 [C] / [F] / | [C] / [Eb] / | [C] / [F] / | [C] [G] / / |

As he [C] walked me [F] to my [C] door (doo [F] waddy wah)
 I a-[C]-greed to [F] see him once [C] more (oh [F] yeah)
 Lady-[C]-like, it [F] may not [C] be (doo [F] waddy wah)
 But he [C] moved me tre-[F]-mend-ous-[C]-ly [F]

Al-[Eb]-though he was bold, my [Db] heart he stole [Db] / / /

He was [C] really [F] saying [C] something [F]
 [C] Really [F] saying [C] something [F]
 [C] Bop bop, [F] shoo be doo [C] wah / / /
 [C] Bop bop, [F] shoo be doo [C] wah [G] / /
